

Free Video Training Series

Exploring Race and Culture from a Trauma-Informed Lens

Segment 3: Working with People with Different Racial and Cultural Backgrounds

Access the training:

<https://children.wi.gov/Pages/CollectiveImpactTeams/TICWorkshops.aspx>

Training and video include:

- Expert panel discussion.
- Video is 30 minutes.
- Accompanied by a Training Toolkit with discussion questions and resources.
- Ideal for staff training in one hour. View the video as a team and then discuss the questions in the Training Toolkit.

Learn from the panel as they have a direct discussion on how to check your own personal beliefs at the door, build back trust when a client relationship has been challenged, and how to avoid perpetuating trauma with a client.

Panel participants:

- Ricky Ferrari Traner (panel facilitator) – Prevention & Early Intervention Section Manager, Department of Children & Families
- Rob Kaminski – Lived Experience Partner, Office of Children's Mental Health
- Bojana Zorić Martinez – Director of the Bureau of Refugee Programs, Department of Children & Families
- Pablo Navarro – Owner/Director/ Professional Counselor, Navarro Professional Counseling Services

Exploring Race and Culture from a Trauma-Informed Lens is a 3-segment video series:

- Segment 1 – White Privilege (2 parts)
- Segment 2 – Implicit Bias
- Segment 3 – Working with People with Different Racial and Cultural Backgrounds

The videos are produced by the Office of Children's Mental Health Trauma-Informed Care Collective Impact Team. The Team has held many successful trauma-informed care workshops in the past and provides on-demand video trainings on relevant trauma-informed care topics to further the workforce's learning in trauma-informed care.